3	Head Teacher's Report a. Update from IM	School atmosphere is improving among staff and parental engagement. One student is on fixed term suspension but we are engaging with the parents and providing good support as a school. Potential new starters – two children with additional mobility needs – visited the school to potentially attend in 2025. The tour revealed we are lacking in terms of accessibility, and this point should be addressed initially by a governor task force, not just because of the potential new starters, but in general we could do a lot better.
